

Programme

Energy Solutions for a European Green Deal

Session I

Welcome: Arvid Moss, President of the Confederation of Norwegian Enterprise

Keynote: European Commission (TBC)

Showcasing technology

Developing solutions behind the world's first zero emission, autonomous ships

Kongsberg Digital Hege Skryseth, President

Building the world's first zero-emission cement plant

Heidelberg Cement Per Brevik, Director alternative fuels

Waste: an emission free source of energy for the future?

Fortum Oslo Varme: Jannicke Gerner Bjerkås, CCS Director

Q&A with the audience

Coffee break

Session II

Key note speech

State Secretary, Odd-Emil Ingebrigtsen

Norwegian Ministry of Petroleum and Energy

Energy future: Where are we heading?

Moderated discussion on reaching net zero in 2050

Eirik Wærness, Chief Economist, Equinor

Henrik Sætness, Chief Economist, Statkraft

TBC, International Energy Agency

Lunch

TENTATIVE PROGRAMME

Session III

Showcase: Low carbon products, for a low carbon future

The role of aluminum in the Green Deal

Norsk Hydro ASA, Egil Hogna, Executive Vice President, Extruded Solutions

Showcasing future energy solutions

Becoming a broader energy company – putting action behind words

Equinor ASA (TBC)

Bringing offshore oil and gas technology to offshore renewable energy

Subsea 7, Jan Arthur Grip Nilsen, Business Unit Director

NODES: a marketplace for a sustainable and flexible energy future

Agder Energi, Jan Pedersen, director

Europe's biggest power plant is virtual

Statkraft, Andreas Bader, vice president sales and new products

Q&A with the audience

How do we get there and how do we balance climate action with value creation?

Moderated discussion on policy requirements for a prosperous green transition.

Odd-Emil Ingebrigtsen, State Secretary, Norwegian Ministry of Petroleum and Energy

Espen Barth Eide, member of Norwegian Parliament

Ville Niinistö MEP, Group of the European Greens

TBC, European Parliament

TBC, European Parliament

Arvid Moss & Sandrine Dixon-Declève sum up the day

15.00 – 16.00: Networking reception
